Intersex: Medical, Cultural and Historical Contexts
Thursday and Friday, December 5th and 6th, 2013
University of Arizona, Institute for LGBT Studies

James J. Leos Symposium in LGBT Studies

a difference engine
Intersex: Medical, Cultural and Historical Contexts

Thursday, December 5, 2013

Sex Testing in Women’s International Sports Competition
6:00pm-7:30pm  UA Student Union, Catalina Room
Dr. Katrina Karkazis, Center for Biomedical Ethics, Stanford University

Friday, December 6, 2013

Historical and Sociological Perspectives on Intersex
10:00am-11:30am  Room 100 The Department of Gender & Women's Studies 925 N Tyndall Ave
Dr. Elizabeth Reis, Department of History, University of Oregon
Dr. Georgiann Davis, Assistant Professor of Sociology, Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville

Practitioner and Patient Advocate Perspectives
1:00pm-3:30pm Room 100 The Department of Gender & Women's Studies 925 N Tyndall Ave
Dr. Amy Beth Wisniewski, Department of Urology, University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center
Dr. Anne Tamar-Mattis, Executive Director, Advocates for Informed Choice

Plenary Panel Discussion "Contemporary Intersex Issues"
4:00pm-5:30pm  Room 100 The Department of Gender & Women's Studies 925 N Tyndall Ave
All Presenters

(520) 626-3431  LGBTStudies@email.arizona.edu  LGBT.arizona.edu
Graphic by Marcus Werthmann Creator: Maya Posch via Wikimedia Commons