INNOVATIVE MEDICINE:
NEW APPROACHES TO OLD CHALLENGES – 2015

Friday, October 23, 2015
9 to 11 a.m.
Arizona Cancer Center Kiewit Auditorium
1515 N. Campbell Ave., Tucson, AZ 85724

Join us for this stimulating series of presentations by UA College of Medicine faculty and alumni who are developing effective new approaches to persistent medical challenges.

Learn about:
- The current understanding of viral epidemiology and how the clinical evolution of HPV-related neoplasia informs modern screening and vaccination practices for cervical cancer prevention.
- Barriers to optimal care in the changing world of breast cancer diagnosis and treatment.
- Management and guideline changes in the care of penetrating traumatic brain injury that have produced dramatic improvements in survival and outcome at reduced costs.
