Arizona Telemedicine Course: Applications, Model Programs and Secrets for Success

Telemedicine Training Conference
Flagstaff Medical Center’s McGee Auditorium
1200 N. Beaver St., Flagstaff, AZ
Friday, October 9, 2015  9 am – 5 pm
$300 registration fee waived for Arizona residents

Nationally recognized speakers will present on:
- Telemedicine and telehealth updates
- Chronic disease management through telemedicine
- Telerheumatology and training telepresenters
- Telepsychiatry
- Teleneurology, telestroke, and tele-epilepsy programs
- Recruiting telehealth physicians
- eICU (electronic intensive care unit)
- Building partnerships for successful telehealth care delivery
- Telemedicine and telehealth standards and guidelines
- The business of telemedicine
- Arizona policy and legislative updates
- Telemedicine resources

Target audience:
Healthcare professionals or administrators who are new to telemedicine, who have some telehealth experience and want to expand services and/or understand successful applications of the technology, or who represent an experienced telemedicine organization

Registration is limited
Go to http://telemedicine.arizona.edu/training
Lunch is provided for registered attendees.

Questions:
Tracy Skinner: 520-626-6103
Nancy Rowe: 928-266-1164

Presented by the Arizona Telemedicine Program and the Southwest Telehealth Resource Center with cosponsors Health Choice Integrated Care, North Country Healthcare and Northern Arizona Healthcare

The Arizona Telemedicine Program’s training events are accredited by the American Telemedicine Association.